

CURRICULUM VITAE

January 2015

Jón Haukur Ingimundarson

Senior Scientist, Stefansson Arctic Institute, and Associate Professor, School of Humanities and Social Sciences,
University of Akureyri
Borgir, Nordurslod, IS-600 Akureyri, Iceland
Tel: +354 460-8982; +354 862 0477; +45 91 93 16 79
Fax: +354 460-8989; E-mail: jhi@svs.is

EDUCATION

- 1982 Bachelor of Science in Biology, University of Iceland. Double minor in geography and social anthropology
1986 Masters of Arts in Anthropology, University of Arizona. Major in cultural anthropology; minor in physical anthropology
1995 Ph.D. in Anthropology, University of Arizona. Major in cultural anthropology; minor in social history.

Ph.D. DISSERTATION

Of Sagas and Sheep: Toward a Historical Anthropology of Social Change and Production for Market, Subsistence and Tribute in Early Iceland (10th to the 13th Century). 355 pages.
Published by UMI Dissertation Information Services. Ann Arbor: A Bell & Howell Company.
Dissertation Directors: Richard N. Henderson, Robert M. Netting, Thomas K. Park
Other graduate and dissertation advisors: John W. Olsen, Hermann Rebel, Tessie Liu

POSITIONS AND EMPLOYMENT

- 2014-15 Visiting Researcher, CIRCLA/Department of Culture and Global Studies, Aalborg University.
1998-present: Senior Scientist, Stefansson Arctic Institute, Akureyri, Iceland.
2004-present: Associate Professor, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, University of Akureyri, Iceland
2002-present: Faculty Associate, Ph.D. Program in Anthropology, Graduate School and University Center, City University of New York.
2005-2006 & 2012-2013: Acting Director, Stefansson Arctic Institute, Akureyri, Iceland.
1997-1998: Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Bucknell University.

1995-1997: Research Associate, Department of Anthropology, Hunter College, C.U.N.Y.
1995-1996: Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology, University of Arizona
1994-1995: Lecturer, Department of Anthropology, University of Arizona
1993-1994: Resident Scholar with Weatherhead Dissertation Fellowship at the School of American Research, Santa Fe, New Mexico
1991-1992: Lecturer, Department of Social Sciences, University of Iceland

COURSES TAUGHT

Undergraduate:

Economic Anthropology (Iceland)
Anthropology of the Icelandic Sagas (Iceland)
Human Ecology (Iceland)
Cultural Anthropology (Arizona)
Ecological Anthropology (Arizona)
Current trends in Cultural and Historical Ecology (Arizona)
Introduction to Cultural and Linguistic Anthropology (Arizona, Bucknell)
Anthropology of the Environment (Bucknell)
Anthropological Analysis (Akureyri)
Qualitative research methods (Akureyri)
Introduction to the Circumpolar World (Akureyri and the University of the Arctic)
Peoples and Cultures of the Arctic I (Akureyri and the University of the Arctic)

Graduate:

Anthropological Research Methods and Design (Arizona)
Cultural Ecology Seminar (Arizona)
Foundation of Cultural Anthropology - co-taught with Richard A. Thompson (Arizona)
Qualitative Research Methods - co-taught with other instructors (Akureyri)
Arctic Societies and Cultures (Akureyri – Polar Law Program)
Arctic Human Development (Akureyri – Polar Law Program)
Societies, Cultures and Human Development in the Arctic – co-taught with Anna Kerttula de Echave (Akureyri – Polar Law Program)

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

- 2014 Circumpolar Perspectives in Global Dialogue: Social Sciences beyond the International Polar Year. Topics in Social Sciences, Volume 7, 2014. Based on ICASS VII in Akureyri, Iceland, 22-26 June 2011. Jón Haukur Ingimundarson, Joan Nymand Larsen and Lára Ólafsdóttir, editors. Publication series of the International Arctic Social Sciences Association. A web-publication at www.iassa.org
- 2010 Comparative-historical analysis of farming systems and agricultural intensification in medieval and early modern Iceland. In Political Economy of Northern Regional

- Development*. Gorm Winther and Rasmus Ole Rasmussen, ed. Copenhagen: Nordic Council of Ministers Publication.
- 2007 The Borderless North. Proceedings of the Fourth Northern Research Forum (NRF) Open Meeting, held in Oulu, Tornio-Haparanda and Luleå in October 2006. Editor, with Embla Eir Oddsdóttir og Guðrún Rósa Þosteinsdóttir. On-line publication: <http://www.nrf.is/index.php/publications/the-borderless-north>. Akureyri: Northern Research Forum Secretariat.
- 2005 The Resilient North – Human Responses to Global Change. Proceedings of the Third Open Meeting of the Northern Research Forum, held in Yellowknife and Rae Edzo, Canada, September, 2004. Editor, with Embla Eir Oddsdóttir. On-line publication: <http://www.nrf.is/index.php/publications/the-resilient-north>. Akureyri: Northern Research Forum Secretariat.
- 2004 Northern Veche. Proceedings of the Second NRF Open Meeting, held in Veliky Novgorod, September 2002. Editor. (Book in both English and Russian, and Andrei Golovnev is editor of the Russian translation). Akureyri: Stefansson Arctic Institute and University of Akureyri.
- 2001 Northern Farming in a Long-Term Perspective. In Arctic Flora and Fauna: Status and Conservation. CAFF (Conservation of Arctic Flora and Fauna) publication. Helsinki: Edita. (with Thomas H. McGovern)
- 2001 North Meets North. Proceedings of the First Northern Research Forum, held in Akureyri and at Bessastaðir, November 2000. Editor, with Thorleifur Stefan Björnsson and Lara Olafsdóttir. Akureyri: Stefansson Arctic Institute and University of Akureyri.
- 1997 Interdisciplinary Investigations of the end of the Norse Western Settlement in Greenland. The Holocene 7(4):489-499. (with L.K. Barlow, J.P. Sadler, A.E.J. Ogilvie, P.C. Buckland, T. Amorosi, P. Skidmore, A.J. Dugmore, and T.H. McGovern)
- 1996 Raiding the Landscape: Human Impact in the Scandinavian North Atlantic. Human Ecology 25(3):491-518. Special Issue: Islands and Laboratories. Ben Fitzhugh and Terry Hunt, guest editors. (with Thomas Amorosi, Paul Buckland, Andrew Dugmore, and Thomas H. McGovern)
- 1992 Spinning Goods and Tales: Market, subsistence and literary productions. In From Sagas to Society: Comparative Approaches to Early Iceland. Gisli Pálsson, ed. Pp. 217-230. Middlesex: Hisarlik Press.

SCHOLARLY PRESENTATION

Presentation during the international workshop “Arctic Nexus in Asian-Nordic+ Relations,” as a panelist in the session “The people of the Arctic and Asia: indigenous rights and transnational connections.” Workshop organized by the Center for Innovation and Research in Culture and Learning in the Arctic (CIRCLA) and the Department of Culture and Global Studies, Aalborg University. Aalborg, Denmark, November 5-7, 2014.

Presenter and chair at the conference Gender Equality in the Arctic: Current Realities, Future Challenges. Panelist in the Final Session and moderator of the session “(Re-)Construction of Gender in the Arctic.” The main organizers of this conference were Atli Már Sigurðsson, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Iceland; Kristín Ástgeirsdóttir, Icelandic Centre for Gender Equality; Jón Haukur Ingimundarson, Stefansson Arctic Institute; and Embla Eir Oddsdóttir, Icelandic Arctic Cooperation Network, with the support of the Nordic Council of Ministers, Sweden, Finland, Norway, the Faroe Islands and the Arctic Council. Akureyri, Iceland, October 30-31, 2014.

“Adaptive Responses to Changing Economic and Climatic Conditions and Extreme Events in Present-Day Icelandic Agriculture.” Presentation in the session “Arctic Agriculture and Farming Systems in Transition,” which I organized and chaired. The Eighth International Congress of Arctic Social Sciences (ICASS VIII). University of Northern British Columbia, Prince George, BC, Canada, May 22-26, 2014.

“The Political Ecology of Social Formation, Farming Systems and Changing Climate Conditions in Medieval Iceland.” A presentation in the session “Circumpolar History.” The Eighth International Congress of Arctic Social Sciences (ICASS VIII). University of Northern British Columbia, Prince George, BC, Canada, May 22-26, 2014.

“Adaptive responses to changing climatic and economic conditions and extreme events in past and present Icelandic agriculture.” A Keynote Address for the session “Human Responses to Climatic Fluctuations over different time scales.” Global Human Ecodynamic Alliance (GHEA) Open Workshop 2013. University of Maryland at College Park, November 4-6, 2013.

“Icelandic agriculture and forestry in an era of Arctic warming and financial crisis.” A presentation in the session “Climate change in the Arctic.” Arctic Circle Conference. Reykjavík, October 12-14, 2013.

”Arctic agriculture and food security: Icelandic farming and forestry in an era of climate change and financial crisis.” A presentation in the conference Climate Change, Culture and Human Development during the inaugural Icelandic Greenlandic Arctic Science Days, organized by The Icelandic Cooperation Committee on Arctic Issues (Samvinnunefnd um málefni norðurslóða, skipuð af umhverfisarðherra), University of Greenland and the Greenland Climate Research Center. University of Greenland, Nuuk, September 21-22, 2012.

”Outlaws, Ecclesiastics, and Masculinities in Bjarnar saga Hítðalakappa and Harðar saga og Hólmverja.” Presentation in the Nordic Gender Network-Conference on Deviance, organized by the Department of English Studies at Durham University and the Nordic Research Network on Medieval Gender History. St. John's College, Durham University, UK. July 6-8, 2012.

“Arctic Food Security and Agricultural Knowledge in Action: Lessons in Resilience and Adaptation from Iceland in an Era of Climate Change and Financial Crisis.” A presentation in a session under the theme “Communities and Change: Vulnerability, Resilience and Adaptation.” International Polar Year (IPY) 2012 Conference; From Knowledge to Action. Montréal, June 22-27, 2012.

“Agricultural Intensification, Diversification and Conservation in View of Climate Change: the Case of Iceland and Prospects for the Circum-Arctic Region.” A presentation in the theme session “Polar lessons: Arctic and Antarctic governance and economics.” International Polar Year Oslo Science Conference. Oslo, June 8-12, 2010.

“Vilhjálmur Stefánsson.” A presentation in the roundtable session “Arctic visionaries – past and present.” International Polar Year Oslo Science Conference. Oslo, June 8-12, 2010.

“A bilateral marriage between two men and a Woman: Gender relations and transformations in Laxdæla saga and Bjarnar saga Hítðlakappa.” Presentation in the a workshop of Medieval Gender History – a Nordic Research Network. Stockholm University, April 15-16, 2010.

“Iceland, climate change and The Friendly Arctic.” An invited public lecture during Norway's Forskningsdagene. Nordkapp Museet, Honningsvåg, September 24, 2009.

“Sustainable Icelandic Livelihoods – looking beyond the current crisis.” Presentation at the 2nd Workshop of the IPY consortium on The Political Economy of Northern Regional Development (POENOR). Akureyri, November 14-16, 2008.

“Masculinities, Class, and Secular and Spiritual Careers in Bjarnar saga Hítðlakappa.” Invited presentation in the workshop “Masculinity and the Medieval North”. University of Gothenburg, Department of History, October 16-18, 2008.

“Sustainability Indicators for Icelandic Agricultural Development in View of Climate Change and Prospects for the Circum-Arctic Region.” Presentation at the 6th International Congress of Arctic Social Sciences (ICASS VI). Nuuk, Greenland, August 22-26, 2008.

“Northern agricultural development and farming systems: the case of past and present Iceland, and prospects for the circum-arctic region.” Presentation at ICECAP 2008 – Workshop of the Icelandic-Canadian Network for Comparative Studies of the Cumulative Impacts of Arctic Climate Change. Borgir, Akureyri, March 10-11, 2008.

“Comparative Historical Analysis of Northern farming Systems and Market, Subsistence and Tribute Production: The case of Iceland and Prospects for the circum-arctic Region”. Invited presentation in the 1st Workshop of the International Polar Year project “Political Economy of Northern Regional Development.” Skagen, Denmark, November 1-3, 2007.

“Male gendered careers and figurative-female establishments in medieval Iceland: Testimonies and memories in Bjarnar saga Hítðælakappa”. Presentation at the conference Mannfræði á 21. öldinni. University of Iceland, Reykjavík, August 16-17, 2007.

“Heilbrigði, lífsgæði, menning og menntun.” Invited lecture at „Málstofa um Ísland og Norðurslóðir,“ organized by The Icelandic Centre for Research. Reykjavík, November 29, 2005.

“Northern Political Ecologies: The case of agricultural development and community viability in contemporary Iceland.” Presentation in the theme-session “The State of Human Development and the Impacts of Globalization in the Eurasian North.” Calotte Academy 2005. Inari, Finland, May 26-28, 2005.

“The Friendly Arctic: Vilhjalmur Stefansson’s Legacy and Vision.” A lecture and a guided tour of The Friendly Arctic Exhibition. Scandinavia House – The Nordic Center of America, New York City, January 31, 2004.

“Culture and Long-Term Community Viability.” Roundtable presentation in during the visit by Her Excellency the Right Honourable Adrienne Clarkson, Governor General of Canada, to Akureyri, Iceland, October 12 -14, 2003.

“Northern Education and Autonomy in an Era of Integration: The University of the Arctic from a West-Nordic Perspective.” Presentation on the panel “Education in the North” of the International Colloquium: The North. University of Alberta, Edmonton, May 27-28, 2000.

“Haskoli Nordursloda og Rannsoknarthing Nordursins”. Presentation on the “Day of the Arctic,” February 19, 2000. Nordic House, Reykjavík, Iceland.

“Economic Transformations and Environmental Thresholds in Medieval Iceland and Norse Greenland.” Presentation at the Conference of the Polar Libraries Colloquy, Akureyri, September 19, 1999.

“Economic Transformations, Climatic Thresholds, and Ecological Succession in Medieval Iceland.” Presentation in the Invited Session which I chaired, “Population, Production and Environmental Change in North Atlantic Islands.” 97th Annual American Anthropological Association Meeting, Philadelphia, December 2-6, 1998. (with Astrid E. J. Ogilvie)

“Climatic Change, Socio-Economic Transformation, and Ecological Succession in the Late Twelfth to Fourteenth Century in Iceland.” Presentation at the 28th Annual Arctic Workshop: “Arctic and Alpine Environments, Past and Present.” Institute of Arctic and Alpine Research (INSTAAR), Boulder, Colorado, March 12-14, 1998. (with Astrid E. J. Ogilvie)

“Northern Farming Ecologies: A historical anthropology of social formation and production for market, subsistence and tribute in medieval Iceland.” Open invited lecture in the colloquium series on “Animals and Human Society: Medieval and Early Modern Europe.” The Davis Center for Historical Studies, Princeton University, October 24, 1997.

“Political economies, environmental change, and strategies of terrestrial and marine resource use in medieval to modern Iceland.” Presentation at the 1st International Workshop of the North Atlantic Biocultural Organization (NABO) in Iceland, “Nature & Society: Human-Environment.” University of Iceland, Reykjavík, August 7, 1996.

“Political Ecology, Historical Ecology.” Special invited presentation in conjunction with the 1st Human Dimensions of the Arctic System (HARC) Workshop, organized by the Arctic Research Consortium of the United States (ARCUS) and funded by the Arctic System Science Program (ARCSS) of the US NSF. Tucson, Arizona, October 22, 1995.

“Icelandic farming systems, past and present.” A public lecture presented at the Institute of Arctic and Alpine Research, University of Colorado at Boulder, May 8, 1995. In conjunction with participation in a meeting of the Climate and Northern Farming Ecology working groups of North Atlantic Biocultural Organization.

“Huldufolk and Memories of Sisterhood, Class, and Emigration in 19th Century Icelandic Folktales and 20th Century Oral Histories.” Open invited lecture at University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, sponsored by the Department of Icelandic Language and Literature. Winnipeg, February 2, 1995.

“Of sagas and sheep: Social change, and exchange, subsistence, and tribute production in early Iceland.” In the session which I chaired “The Dynamics of Viking Age and Early Medieval Scandinavia: A New Look at Sources and Societies,” organized by E. Paul Durrenberger and Thomas Hakanson. 92nd Annual American Anthropological Association Meeting, Atlanta, November 1994.

“Conflicting agro-ecological factors in the production of meat, milk and commercial wool in northern and alpine farming systems;” “Agricultural intensification and subsequent disintensification coupled with growth in fishing in medieval Iceland.” Two presentations during the 2nd Meeting of the North Atlantic Biocultural Organization hosted by University of Glasgow and Edinburgh University, September 16-20, 1994.

CONFERENCES AND SYMPOSIA ORGANIZED

“Gender Equality in the Arctic: Current Realities, Future Challenges.” A conference organized by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Iceland (Atli Már Sigurðsson), Icelandic Centre for Gender Equality (Kristín Ástgeirsdóttir), the Stefansson Arctic Institute (Jón Haukur Ingimundarson) and the Icelandic Arctic Cooperation Network (Embla Eir Oddsdóttir), with the support of the Nordic Council of Ministers, Sweden, Finland, Norway, the Faroe Islands and the Arctic Council. Hof, Akureyri, Iceland, October 30-31, 2014.

The 2013 General Conference of the North Atlantic Biocultural Organization (NABO). Hosted by the Stefansson Arctic Institute, Borgir, Akureyri, Iceland, July 12-13, 2013.

The Seventh International Congress of Arctic Social Sciences (ICASS VII), entitled Circumpolar Perspectives in Global Dialogue: Social Sciences beyond the International Polar Year. Organized and hosted by the International Arctic Social Sciences Association (IASSA), University of Akureyri, Stefansson Arctic Institute, Town of Akureyri, Arctic Portal and Icelandic Centre for Research. University of Akureyri and Borgir Research Building, Akureyri, Iceland, June 22-26, 2011. Congress Convener: Jón Haukur Ingimundarson.

“The Borderless North.” The 4th Northern Research Forum Open meeting organized by the Northern Research Forum Steering Committee and Secretariat (Jón H. Ingimundarson, Director). Oulu, Tornio, Haparanda and Luleå in Finland and Sweden, October 5-8, 2006.

“The Resilient North – Human Responses to Global Change.” The 3rd Open Meeting of the Northern Research Forum, organized by the Northern Research Forum Steering Committee and Secretariat in cooperation with the Canadian Polar Commission. Yellowknife and Rae Edzo, Canada, September 15-18, 2004.

“Northern Veche – The Second NRF Open Meeting,” organized jointly by the Northern Research Forum Steering Committee and Secretariat and the Northern Research Forum of Russia. Veliky Novgorod, Russia, September 19-22, 2002.

“The 4th Circumpolar Agricultural Conference: Legacy and Vision in Northern Agriculture,” organized by the Secretariat of the Circumpolar Agricultural Organization in collaboration with the Iceland Agricultural Research Institute and other Icelandic organizations concerned with agriculture. Akureyri, August 27-29, 2001.

“North Meets North – The First Northern Research Forum,” organized by the Northern Research Forum Steering Committee and Secretariat. Akureyri and Bessastadir, November 4-6, 2000.

“Historical Dimensions of Human Adaptability and Environmental Changes in North Atlantic Regions.” The 3rd International Workshop of the North Atlantic Biocultural Organization (NABO) in Iceland, organized by Jón H. Ingimundarson and Astrid E. J. Ogilvie, sponsored by the Stefansson Arctic Institute and the North Atlantic Biocultural Organization, and hosted by the University of Akureyri. Akureyri, Iceland, July 16-21, 1999.

“Political Ecology & Ecological Politics.” The 2nd International Workshop of the North Atlantic Biocultural Organization (NABO) in Iceland, organized by Jon Haukur Ingimundarson, University of Arizona, hosted by the Department of Anthropology at University of Iceland, and funded by the US National Science Foundation. University of Iceland (Oddi), Reykjavík, Iceland, August 1-3, 1997.

“Nature & Society: Human-Environment interactions.” The 1st International Workshop of the North Atlantic Biocultural Organization (NABO) in Iceland, organized by Jon Haukur Ingimundarson, University of Arizona, hosted by the Department of Anthropology at the University of Iceland, and funded by the US National Science Foundation. University of Iceland (Oddi), Reykjavík, August 6-7, 1996.

SELECTED SERVICES: ACADEMIC COMMITTEES & GRADUATE STUDENT ADVIZING

- Thesis supervisor of Alice Emma Zackrisson, who received the degree of Master of Education from the University of Akureyri in November 2010. (Thesis: Danskir innflytjendur á Íslandi: Tungumálið er glugginn að menningunni og grundvöllur aðlögunar. 141 pages. 60 ECTS units).
- Thesis supervisor of Dagbjört Ásgeirsdóttir, who received the degree of Master of Education from the University of Akureyri in May 2008. (Thesis: Þegar tungumálið kemur, þá kemur allt” – Reynsla kvenna af Kosovo-albönskum uppruna af að búa á Íslandi. 142 pages. 60 ECTS units).
- Thesis supervisor of Halla Magnúsdóttir, who received the degree of Master of Education from the University of Akureyri in August 2007. (Thesis: Hugmyndir, reynsla og viðmið tengd kennslu barna með dyslexíu. 175 pages. 60 ECTS units).
- Member of the Bachelor of Circumpolar Studies program development team, University of the Arctic. (1998-present). Served as the first Chairman of the BCS PDT, from 1998 to 2002, and was lead author of the BCS program’s founding document, A Preliminary Plan for a Bachelor of Circumpolar Studies, which was published in 1999 by the University of the Arctic Circumpolar Coordination Office, Arctic Centre, Rovaniemi, Finland. The Bachelor of Circumpolar Studies (BCS) is a comprehensive curriculum program that provides a solid understanding of northern issues with a circumpolar perspective, an integrative approach that includes social and natural sciences, and local knowledge, and at the same time reaches a broad base of students.
- Promotional Committee: Applications for a promotion to the position of an Associate Professor (in 2002 and 2004) and to the position of a Full Professor (in 2007) at the University of Iceland.
- Committee for establishing a Faculty of Social Sciences at the University of Akureyri, appointed by the University Rector. (2002)
- External reviewer of M.A. thesis by Kristin Erla Hardardóttir, who received an M.A. degree in anthropology from the University of Iceland, 2002.
- Selection Committee – Appointment of an assistant professor of Anthropology at the University of Iceland. (2000)
- Thesis supervisor of Holmfrídur Kristjansdóttir, who received the degree of Master of Science in Nursing from the Royal College of Nursing Institute, London, in 1999.
- Selection Committee – Appointment of a director for the University of Iceland Anthropology Institute. (1997-98)

- Advisory Committee for the Human Dimensions of Arctic System Science (HARC) Initiative, Arctic System Science Program (ARCSS) of the U.S. National Science Foundation. (1995-97)
- Ph.D. Qualifying Examination Committee of Kenneth Lizzio, University of Arizona. (1995-1996)

OTHER SELECTED PROFESSIONAL SERVICES AND MAJOR PROJECTS

- Contributor and reviewer. The Arctic Social Indicators project, endorsed by the IPY and the Arctic Council, and funded by the Nordic Council of Ministers. (2007-2009)
- Research partner with the Icelandic-Canadian Network for Comparative Studies of the Cumulative Impacts of Arctic Climate Change (ICECAP). (2008-present)
- Research partner in the International Polar Year project Political Economy of Northern Regional Development (POENOR). (2007-present)
- Member of the Icelandic national committee for International Polar Year 2007-2009. (2006-2009)
- Member of the University of the Arctic's internal advisory team for project Higher Education in the International Polar Year 2007-2008. (2005-2008)
- Member of a Steering Group for the Advancement of Arctic Research in Iceland, a project was coordinated by The Icelandic Center for Research. (2005-2007)
- Member of the Working Group on Arctic Science in the Public Interest, as part of the Second International Conference on Arctic Research Planning (ICARP II). (2004-2007)
The goal of ICARP was to prepare Arctic research plans to guide international cooperation over the next 10-15 years.
- Advisor and contributing expert for the Arctic Human Development Report (AHDR), published in November 2004 by the Stefansson Arctic Institute under the auspices of the Icelandic Chairmanship of the Arctic Council. (2002-2004)
- Director and Co-director of the Northern Research Forum (NRF) Secretariat. (1999-2006)
- Curator, supervisor and co-author, The Friendly Arctic Traveling Exhibition: Vilhjalmur Stefansson's Life, Legacy and Vision. The Exhibition is produced by the Stefansson Arctic Institute, Akureyri and Visionis ehf, Reykjavik, Iceland, in collaboration with Dartmouth College, New Hampshire, USA. It has opened in the Akureyri Art Museum (2000), Reykjavík Art Museum (2001), Montshire Museum of Science in Norwich, Vermont

(2002), Scandinavia House in New York City (2004) and the North Atlantic House in Copenhagen. Small-scale versions of the Exhibit have been on display in Gimli, Winnipeg, Minneapolis, Iqaluit, Akureyri and Honningsvåg. Venues of proposed further openings include the Canadian Museum of Nature in Ottawa (October 2010-January 2011).

- Member of the Council of the University of the Arctic (UArctic), representing the University of Akureyri and the Stefansson Arctic Institute. (1998-present). The UArctic is a cooperative network of about 110 universities, colleges, and other organizations committed to higher education and research in the North. www.uarctic.org
- Secretary, Circumpolar Agricultural Association (CAA). (1999-2003) The CAA is a non-governmental organization concerned with northern agriculture science, practice and policy.
- Project manager for the North Atlantic Biocultural Organization (NABO) secretariat in Iceland, and chair of the NABO working group on Northern Farming Ecology.(1999-2004)
- Co-author and co-director of the Human Dimensions of Arctic Environments web-based information project. This project, www.thearctic.is, includes introductory essays in 5 languages and was developed by the Stefansson Arctic Institute and individual authors in partnership with the EU Raphael Programme. (1999-2001)